- Companions are an integral part of the worldwide Chalice Well family and play an important role in enabling Chalice Well Trust to maintain the gardens as a living sanctuary for all.
- Support Chalice Well by taking out a Companionship subscription today and we will refund the cost of your admission.
- Stay here in our accommodation and enjoy the peace of the gardens. Rest and revive your spirits in the comfort of one of our two self-catering retreat houses.

As a Companion you can:

- book a room in our retreat houses with 24 hour access to the gardens
- enjoy regular issues of our Journal "The Chalice"
- join in the weekly Companions' meditation
- book the Upper Room for private meditation during a visit to the gardens
- receive priority information and bookings on all Trust retreats, workshops and events
- attend our annual summer Companions' Day event held in the marquee on the lower lawns

Chalice Well Trust

Wellesley Tudor Pole founded the Trust in 1959 as a charity to safeguard and protect Chalice Well and to enable visitors and pilgrims to receive inspiration and refreshment from the waters and the gardens. The aims of the Trust are to:

- preserve in perpetuity Chalice Well, its surroundings and to beautify them for the benefit of the public, so that they may forever access this living sanctuary for pilgrimage and rest
- encourage individual spiritual awareness and growth by offering this place to all people, of all religious and spiritual paths, for pilgrimage, ceremony, quiet contemplation and healing
- facilitate spiritual awareness and harmony in the local and wider community

Chalice Well Events

Our annual programme of events, which includes late night garden openings with music, concerts, retreats and community gatherings and meditations, is available in leaflet form and also at www.chalicewell.org.uk

Our 'Wheel of the Year' events such as the Spring and Autumn Equinoxes, Summer and Winter Solstices, are open to all, regardless of spiritual path or faith, to come to Chalice Well and experience connection and community. On specific dates, we hold midday meditations by the well head. On those dates admission to the gardens is free from 10 am to 12 noon (please enquire at the gatehouse for details of dates on which free entry applies).

In the gardens we are ever-present with nature. Observing the turning wheel of the year allows us to connect and experience the full cycle of nature as it relates to the cycle of human life: First Stirring, Greening, Flowering, Full Bloom, Fruition, Harvest, Resting and Regeneration.

More information about the Trust, its work, the gardens and their history can be found in 'Chalice Well: the story of a living sanctuary' which is an illustrated, full colour book. £14.99 available in the Chalice Well Shop or from www.chalicewell.org.uk

Are you a UK taxpayer?

If so, you can use Gift Aid to make your subscription or donation to Chalice Well Trust go further by telling HM Revenue and Customs to add tax already paid to your donation simply by ticking and signing below.

NOTE: To qualify for Gift Aid, what you pay in UK income or capital gains tax must at least equal the amount Chalice Well Trust will claim in the tax year on your subscription / donation(s). It doesn't cost you anything more, and could mean an extra 25p for each pound you give. For example: If your subscription to the Trust is £20.00 and you have paid at least £5.00 in tax in the current tax year, then your subscription is worth £25.00 to us.
