Meeting Room

The retreat house has a spacious meeting room, full of natural light and views of the garden. It has under-floor heating, a Kitchenette, toilet and comfortably seats 20 people. This space adjoins the retreat house for ease of access and is ideal for group activities. Priced at £155 per day.

Meditation Space

Our unique meditation space - the Upper Room - is held exclusively for silent meditation. Created from the vision of our founder, Tudor Pole.

The Upper Room has a very special atmosphere and you have access to this space as part of your booking at the retreat house.

Retreat House

Our 16th century retreat house Little St Michaels is built with oak beams, inglenooks and old stones from the Abbey. It is a rare and precious space where you can enjoy private access to the gardens 24 hours a day

We have a selection of single, twin and double rooms along with one triple room.

There is a spacious fully equipped kitchen with large oven and two fridges. You also have use of the dining room, lounge, a spiritual library and a beautiful private garden with outdoor seating/dining.

24 hour Access to the Garden

You are welcome to use the garden at any time, including when the garden is closed to the public. To enjoy the garden at these quieter times is a precious experience.

If you ever wish to use the garden for group meditation or ceremony this can be easily arranged by contacting one of the team.
